9/2/68

Dear Harold,

Re your letter of 8/23, I sent you a total of 24 books, 12 on 1/5/67 and 12 more on 2/3/67. These were with the understanding that you would distribute without charge as many of them as you felt appropriate. As to those you placed in stores for sale, I do not want you to lay out money from your pocket unless and until you are paid. With thanks,

Sincerely,

Ray
